

What a difference a week makes!

Looking south towards Ormeau

From Eggersdorf Rd looking north

What a difference a week makes!!!

If you haven't driven past the site, please do; it will give you a good indication of how much room we have, now that the whole block is starting to appear from the trees!

Things are really moving into high gear now that construction is moving so quickly, and there is a great energy and optimism around the project that is just so exciting to be a part of!

October 18 2010

This is where we held our groundbreaking

Looking south towards Ormeau