

Progress continues

- 8th November

Looking south over the new Prep rooms.....

From what will be the car park exit, looking over the admin block

A room with a view! The poor builders even had to cut down the last remaining shade tree over their "Little House on the Prairie"!

Looking south over the car park. After the stormwater drainage has been completed, the car park will be built back up to surrounding ground level.

